

Photography & Filming Policy

Photography & Filming Policy for The Opaque Elephant

Last updated: 3 August 2026

Purpose

The Opaque Elephant occasionally photographs or films workshops and events to celebrate participants' creativity and to promote future workshops.

Generally, these photos will be anonymised and not include faces without express permission when published.

Consent

Photographs or videos that clearly identify individuals will only be used with their permission.

Consent may be obtained:

- During the booking process;
- At the event; or
- Through a separate consent form where appropriate.

Parents or legal guardians must provide consent for photographs of children.

Respecting Your Choice

If you do not wish to be photographed or filmed, simply let The Opaque Elephant know before or during the event.

Every reasonable effort will be made to ensure you are not included in promotional images.

How Images May Be Used

With consent, photographs and videos may be used on:

- The Opaque Elephant website
- Social media
- Printed promotional materials
- Funding applications and project reports (where relevant)

Images will never be sold to third parties.

Storage

Images are stored securely and retained only for as long as they remain useful for promotional or record-keeping purposes.

You may withdraw your consent for future use at any time by contacting theopaqueelephant@outlook.com.

This will not affect materials already printed or published before consent was withdrawn.